Qualifications to be issued

The Penn College, as the Registered Training Organisation, will issue AQF certification documentation within 30 days* when required.

Students who successfully complete all units of competency will be issued a BSB30415 Certificate III in Business Administration and a record of results - a record of all learning leading to the qualification.

Students who successfully complete one or more units of competency (but not enough to be issued a qualification) will be issued with a statement of attainment listing the units achieved towards the BSB30415 Certificate III in Business Administration.

*Conditions apply. Refer to the Student Handbook for details.
Recognition of your prior learning and current skills

The Penn College will have regard to your prior learning, including existing skills, knowledge and experience when considering the amount of training you require. If you have current, relevant skills and knowledge that can be verified by the college, you may be eligible for recognition of that prior learning towards the course. This recognition may impact on the amount of training you need to undertake.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details about arranging for an assessment of your eligibility for recognition of that learning towards the course.

Fees

The course fee for the BSB30415 Certificate III in Business Administration is $3,300. No other fees and charges apply to the training. Note that if the student is nominated by Lowes Manhattan Pty Ltd then the fee will be paid by Lowes.

An invoice for the first payment of no more than $1,000 will be issued when enrolment is confirmed. The remainder of the course fee is payable by instalments and the amount and timing of each instalment will be determined based on the amount of each individual student’s training and assessment which is yet to be delivered. Note that no individual fee paid in advance will exceed $1,500.

All fees must be paid in full within five days of receiving an invoice from Penn College. The Penn College may discontinue training if fees are not paid as required.

Refunds

Generally, refunds will be made for cancellations prior to the commencement of initial training but not after commencement. Depending upon the amount of notice given, the College may retain a percentage of the fees paid to cover the cost of staff and resources which will have already been committed.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details about fees, payment methods and conditions and procedures for refunds.

Student identification

The Penn College will ask for your full name for the certificate or statement of attainment. We will also ask to see, and retain a copy of, your driver’s licence, passport or birth certificate and to record the number.

Students must provide their Unique Student Identifier (USI) on the Enrolment Form. Enrolment will not be accepted and qualifications cannot be issued unless a student provides their USI which can be validated by the college. Refer to the Student Handbook for further information about USI.
Assessment procedures
Assessment for a unit of competency usually includes more than one component and usually each component has more than one task. The tasks may include:

- Questioning (verbal or written)
- Observation of performance using an online meeting tool.
- Written responses to assignments and case studies.

Performance in each of the components will be considered together to make a judgement about each student’s competence in the unit.

Students must perform satisfactorily in all parts of all components (against pre-determined benchmarks/model answers) to achieve an outcome of ‘Competent’ in the unit. More than one attempt may be required to demonstrate satisfactory performance in each task.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details of assessment procedures.

Complaints and appeals policy and procedures
The Penn College has policies and procedures to fairly manage and respond to allegations involving the conduct of the college, or Lowes as a partner, or another student. Policies and procedures also exist for the management of requests for a review of decisions made by the college or Lowes, including assessment decisions.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details.

Student support services
At Penn College, in conjunction with Lowes, we aim to support all our students, and provide access to the educational and support services they need to successfully complete the qualification.

At any time, if students feel they are having difficulty or need assistance, they should first approach their assessor.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details about supporting students.

Access and equity
The Penn College provides a pathway for students to make informed decisions about their training and assessment that is right for them, and free from discriminatory barriers. Student needs are identified to ensure that services to each individual student are appropriately adjusted to allow for their unique requirements.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details about The Penn College’s commitment to access and equity.
Resources

Students must have access to the following to undertake this qualification:
• an internet enabled computer;
• printer & scanner (can use smartphone app);
• ergonomic workstation with document holder;

Students of The Penn College will be assigned a licence to access Office 365 for Education, which provides a full downloadable version of Microsoft Office for personal use.

Privacy

RTOs are required to collect certain information for national database and tracking purposes, to assist in ongoing qualification issuance, as required, and to contact and communicate with students during the period of a student’s enrolment.

In recognition of a student’s right to keep their personal information private, the college is committed to protecting and maintaining privacy, accuracy and security of student training records. All data is confidential and is not forwarded to any other party, unless the college is legally obligated to do so, as a condition of its registration, or a student has given written consent for the data to be released to a third party.

Refer to the Student Handbook for further details about information privacy, and arrangements for student access to their own records.
